Thirtieth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Jesus said,

*"You shall love the Lord,
your God,
with all your heart . . .*

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
The whole law and the prophets depend

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself

Rev. Victor C. Yakubu, Parochial Administrator

There is so much talk about love that it is easy to find tons of material on the subject. From movies to fiction novels, we discover the human ability to love and be loved. The beauty of human love is deeply appreciated when love is unconditional and from the heart. Unfortunately, the story is not always that way.

Hatred often creeps into human life and things do not add up as expected. The world today needs love as we see pictures of violence and terrible inhuman acts perpetrated by human beings capable of loving and being loved. It is even more worrisome when religion is used as a cover wreaking havoc on the weak, the innocent and destroying the defenseless.

My position is that religion is supposed to make you a better person but then, when something is wrong with your practice do not blame the religion per se. The book of Exodus should be read with the background of suffering in Egypt of God's chosen people. For over four hundred years, they labored as slaves under harsh conditions until God saved them through Moses.

In today's first reading, God is urging them to consider acts of kindness to aliens, widows, and orphans. "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry." God is encouraging the Israelites to be kind, considerate and merciful to these categories of people and indeed to their neighbors who look different than them.

When we consider how the Jews have been treated inhumanly in history, we feel sympathetic toward their cause: to live in a land that is theirs and be at peace with their neighbors. A mixture of past and recent events indicates that they struggle against all odds to be recognized as a people with rights and privileges just like any other in the world. We can make it easy by recognizing everybody as created in the image and likeness of God.

At the time of Jesus, all Jews knew the Shema by heart. It was a memorized reminder of love of God and love of neighbor as found in Deut. 6: 4-5: "Hear, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord is one! You can love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might." But the Pharisees wanted to test Jesus to know if he knew the Shema by heart. He not only memorized it but added; "The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself." The spirit of love supersedes any kind of feeling one can imagine under the earth. Jesus encourages us to love as he has loved us giving his all to make us free.

St. Paul became a missionary to the Thessalonians out of love for them. He says, "You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake." The message for me today is to work for peace with my neighbor for his sake. As the Lord lives, I can become an ambassador of Christ by living the bible in my daily life. I can become the only bible that others read because I know the Lord. This week say it with the Psalmist, "I love you Lord my strength." By loving your neighbor, you shall conquer all fears and be the light that shines in darkness. Will you be that ambassador of love? Keep smiling!

Arizona Catholic Conference Bishops' Statement Opposing the Legalization of Recreational Marijuana

September 28, 2020

VOTE NO ON PROPOSITION 207

Consistent with our long-standing position, the Bishops of the Arizona Catholic Conference remain opposed to the current initiative (Proposition 207) to legalize the recreational use of marijuana in Arizona. While we are concerned for several reasons, our opposition is primarily rooted in the belief that making recreational marijuana legal is harmful to both children and families in Arizona. Legalizing the recreational use of marijuana sends a message to children that drug use is socially and morally acceptable. As people of faith, we must speak out against this effort and the damaging effects its passage would have on children and families.

We already know that problematic marijuana use is 25 percent higher among teens in states that legalized recreational marijuana. In Arizona, this is particularly alarming because the percentage of eighth, tenth, and twelfth grade students who say they use marijuana has already increased over the past four years as perceptions of risk have fallen.

Furthermore, the most recent child fatality report for the State of Arizona listed marijuana as a direct or contributing factor in almost as many child deaths as alcohol. The prior year, child deaths resulting from marijuana were even higher than alcohol.

For the reasons mentioned above, and others, it is anticipated that legalizing the recreational use of marijuana in Arizona will lead to more abuse by teens, increase child fatalities, and result in more societal costs. Accordingly, due to these detrimental effects, we strongly oppose this dangerous proposal.

Truth in Love
"Only in truth does charity shine forth, only in truth can charity be authentically lived. Truth is the light that gives meaning and value to charity."
 - Caritas in Veritate 3

Laura Wolk in First Things - What I Learned from Amy Coney Barrett - Over the past week, scores of articles have been published on various aspects of Amy Coney Barrett's character—her fitness as a judicial nominee, her acumen as a scholar, and her unapologetic commitment to the Catholic faith. But long before I had reason to consider any of these qualities, I thought of Judge Barrett simply as an answer to my prayers.

Anthony Esolen in The Catholic Thing: The Three-Poisoned God of Our World - In the end, says C. S. Lewis, there are only two kinds of people: those who say to God, "Thy will be done," and those to whom God says, "Thy will be done." In the dead hollow of every sin, there is a false Self, a wraith, a phantasm, an idol. "I am that I am," says God, revealing to Moses his name beyond all circumscribing names. (Ex. 3:16) But I am a creature: I am circumscribed. I derive my being from God, and at every moment my existence is sustained only by his will. When I set myself against God, I slip back toward non-being, toward the hollow that is well suggested by the Germanic word Hell.

Brian Burch in Catholic Vote - Tell the Senate "No Catholic Smears" - Our nation was founded on a deep respect for religious differences. Our country included Episcopalians, Congregationalists, Quakers, Catholics, and more. To ensure a strong republic, our Founding Fathers included an explicit ban on religious tests in Article 6 of the Constitution: "...no religious Test shall ever be required as a Qualification to any Office or public Trust under the United States." Further, remember religious freedom was written into the First Amendment. The views of Americans are shaped by all kinds of backgrounds and institutions. Justice Ginsburg herself regularly cited the importance of her Jewish faith.

Prayer For Respect For Life

Lord, you are the bread of life. It is in receiving your body and blood in the Eucharist that our physical and spiritual lives are nourished. Be with us on our journeys in life and sustain us to the very end. Help us to appreciate and respect life in ourselves and others, and in that last moment we have here on earth, take us into everlasting life in heaven to praise you forever. Amen

Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible Introduction to the Bible; Study Group

Many Catholics want to read the Bible but get bogged down by the long stretches that seem not to make sense or get lost among the sea of Old Testament names and places, Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible, a 8 part Bible study, helps you uncover the story woven throughout Scripture so you can get the “big picture” of the Bible and understand what it’s all about. Aided by a unique color-coded Bible Timeline Chart that arranges the key people, places and events of the Bible in Chronological order, Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible will help you pick up the Bible with confidence and understand how you fit into God’s plan.

St. Mary Roman Catholic Church will begin an 8 week Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible study (the Great Adventure Program through Ascension Press) on October 1, 2020. Participants will meet Thursday’s from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. to view an engaging 30 minutes video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. To reserve your spot, contact Liz DeGraff at (928) 530-9442 call or text.

St. Mary Catholic Women’s Fellowship

Have you ever been asked by non-Catholics. “Why do you do that?” or “Where is that in the Bible?” This year we will be studying the program, “Fulfilled, “Part 1, by Sonja Corbitt (ascensionpress.com) Here, we will discover the roots of Catholicism in the Bible. We meet on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of the month from 6:00pm—7:00pm. Join us in fellowship as we continue to learn more about the richness of our Catholic faith. . For more information please call Rina Rabaiotti, 928-279-2167.

Campus Corner

Welcome to our Campus and our Parish Family. As we are back on our regular Mass schedule and more people are returning to Campus for activities, it remains very important to continue to follow protocols to keep virus numbers falling. Pews and all surfaces are sanitized frequently. Hand sanitizer stations are placed at all entrances and elsewhere in the Church, Chapel, and Parish Center. Thank you for using them and continuing to take other measures to assist in keeping our Church, campus, ourselves and each other safe and healthy. We are always open to and encourage any assistance in keeping the Church and Campus clean and safe. PLEASE NOTE: We have acquired a fogger for disinfecting the Church. It is used several times a week and especially before and between Masses. It would be great if one or two people would volunteer to learn how to use it and be available after any Mass to do so. It’s easy to operate and the Church can be sanitized quickly and the disinfectant dries in no time. Won’t you consider assisting in this way? Additionally, if you might like to volunteer to help with other Campus projects please call me and let me know when you might be available. Tuesday and Thursday mornings after Mass for an hour or so are always good times. Food for thought: With God’s help anything is possible. There’s a lot going on and we need to continue to help each other. If you or someone you know can use assistance with anything, or if you’d like to volunteer to help around Campus, please call me at 928-377-3435 and ask for Steve Couch, Facility Manager. If I’m not in the office, leave a message and I WILL CALL YOU BACK. You may also call my cell phone at 402-415-1296. If you’d prefer, email to couch@stmarykingman.com. I’ll do my best to help or find help or put you to work. Keep Smiling! And Praying! DON’T FORGET TO VOTE !!!

MEMORIALS IN MEMORY OF A LOVED ONE

Occasionally someone will ask me; I would like to donate to something specific for the church in memory of my husband, wife, or someone else. Can you tell me what a contribution for a memorial would be used for and how much would it cost for each item needed for the church? Could I contribute towards the memorial in part if not in full? Here is a list of suggested needs in our parish that could be requested by you to be a memorial in memory of a loved one.

1. New Ciborium (Holy Communion gold vessels used at Mass). The ones we have are badly worn and need to be replaced. It is more expensive to have the ones we have re-gold plated.
2. An automatic bell ringer attachment for our church tower bell to announce the beginning of each weekend Mass as well as announce the hours of the day for reciting the church prayer the “Angelus” which should be recited at 6:00am, noon, and 6:00pm. This is still a traditional practice among many Catholics.
3. A matching chasuble and dalmatic vestment for the priest and deacon, (the outer garment the priest and deacon wear during Mass.) We need sets in green, white, red, and purple for the four traditional colors used at Mass.
4. A new sign for the front of the church to display the times of Mass, confessions, etc.
5. A new sign for the front door of the Parish Center to display office hours etc.

If you are interested, call the Parish Office at (928) 377-3435 to schedule a meeting with Father Victor.
