WELCOME

TO ALL NEW PARISHIONERS AND VISITORS

All Saints Day Year A
The Faces at Morning Mass
Rev. Victor C. Yakubu, Parochial Administrator

Every morning as I set out for Mass, many thoughts rise with me from my bed. The faces I see today at morning Mass are the likely faces I will see again tomorrow. They sit down meditating and patiently waiting for Mass to begin. I find this highly encouraging for my ministry, and above all, for my spiritual life. I always remember the admonishment of the Bible which says, 'remember your Creator in the days in your youth' (Ecclesiastes 12:1). It is necessary to use the time at hand to pray and honor God in the busy days of our lives.

Comparing attendance from what I know of Nigeria and here in the USA, the enthusiasm is the same. Catholics love the Eucharist and those who attend do so because of their faith. However, the demographics of those attending daily Masses differ between my previous experience of ministry in Nigeria and what I see here. While in Nigeria, I see faces of all ages attend Mass, here it is the old folks that impress me mostly in the morning. And this is one big reason which makes my sunrise exciting with joy.

My point is not condemning the younger generation because they have to go to school or work, but in praising the efforts of the older generations for their enthusiasm and commitment to nourishing their Catholic life. Mother Teresa of Calcutta was always found at Mass and she encouraged Catholics to attend every morning before they begin their busy schedules. With the pandemic, we need to be careful about our health. However, we need to have time to pray at Mass.

Sometimes we ask, "how can one become a saint?" Here is a simple answer. The saints were not extraordinary people by privilege of birth. No, the saints were ordinary people who did the ordinary things of life in extraordinary ways. In doing so, they etched their names on solid path to sainthood as exemplary people that others can emulate because of their struggle against imperfections.

In the vision of St. John, the beloved apostle, he saw a multitude of people from every nation, innumerable and impossible to count. These were people who washed themselves in the 'blood of the Lamb' through sacrificing their time for the things of God while they lived in the world. Every individual is given 24 hours in a day, and the way these hours are utilized depends on an individual's time management skills. While few remember that worship is important at the beginning of the day, others are in a rush to finish their to-do lists.

Does prayer automatically put a person on the path to sainthood? The point is not to think of it that way. Rather prayer is the habit that puts the awareness of our transition from this mortal world into God's eternal life. The saints were people who understood that their eternal journey did not begin at death but while they had ample time on their two feet.

Jesus gave us the beatitudes to remind all of us that poverty in the spirit does not necessarily constitute a deprivation of healthy human life. Rather, the beatitudes prepare those who expend time for the things of God to know that their investments in the present time will surely yield bountiful harvests long after their two legs can't move. Such peoples' names are written in gold never to be bloated by any human efforts.

I see faces at Mass and I know that they mean business. Ask me what I love about my ministry, and I should tell you, it is the joy of seeing old folks take seats early morning meditating, praying before Mass. These are saints in the making. How often do you attend Mass? Keep praying!

All Souls' day Year A
Remembering the Faithful Departed
Rev. Victor C. Yakubu, Parochial Administrator

The first reading begins with an important message as we celebrate today. It says, "The souls of the just are in the hands of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in view of the foolish, to be dead; and passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace." The mystery of life and death faces us every day of our lives and we must accept it as ordained by God. As we are born, so we must die. The question we should be concerned about is, "Where will my soul be after death?"

Jesus has shown us the way. He died and rose from the dead. It is the hope of every Christian to rise to everlasting life with God the Father and remain with him for eternity. This answers the question of where the dead go after this life. Our souls return to God because we all came from Him. It is the wish of Jesus that no one should be lost. In the gospel he says, "And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day." What is that "last day" that Jesus refers to? It is the day of final atonement when the soul returns to God to account for all it has done while in this life.

The Church as a family of God remembers all those souls that have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. It remembers those gallant men and women who fought the battle of life and have returned back to God. The first letter of St. John 3: 3 encourages us: "Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure."

The Church prays for multitudes of men and women who fought against all odds to remain pure and faithful until the end. While some were faithful others were not. However, we all know that no one is perfect, but only God. And so, we collectively remember them in prayer for God to have mercy on their souls.

In different cultures of the world, we all have beautiful ceremonies to remember the dead. But the most important ceremony is to remember them in prayer such as today's Feast of All Souls. Some may believe that life ends with death, with no need for prayer. But we believe that prayer works even after death. The soul begins a journey to God which needs our prayers to assist the imperfect soul to receive mercy and forgiveness from God the Father. St. Paul writes to the Romans thus, "If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him." To be able to live with Christ, we must do the Father's will. But when we fail in death, it is the belief of the Church that others can intercede for that soul to receive pardon for unconfessed sins.

This day is marked by a visit to the cemetery to offer prayers for your dear ones who have died. It is important to continue to book Masses to be said in different Churches for their eternal repose. Likewise, remember to pray for the grace of a happy end for yourself; to die in a state of grace with the Sacraments of the Church administered by a priest. Will you have time to visit a cemetery this week and reflect on the mystery of life and death? Keep praying!

Throughout the month of November we shall remember the dead. Their names will be included in the bulletin so that others will also pray for them in their private prayers.

Campus Corner

As we are back on our regular Mass schedule and more people are returning to Campus for activities, it remains very important to continue to follow protocols to keep virus numbers falling. Pews and all surfaces are sanitized frequently. Hand sanitizer stations are placed at all entrances and elsewhere in the Church, Chapel, and Parish Center. Thank you for using them and continuing to take other measures to assist in keeping our Church, campus, ourselves and each other safe and healthy. PLEASE NOTE: We have acquired a fogger for disinfecting the Church. It is used several times a week and especially before and between Masses. It would be great if one or two people would volunteer to learn how to use it and be available after any Mass to do so. It's easy to operate and the Church can be sanitized quickly and the disinfectant dries in no time. Won't you consider assisting in this way? We are always open to and encourage any assistance in keeping the Church and Campus clean and safe. Additionally, if you might like to volunteer to help with other Campus projects please call me and let me know when you might be available. Tuesday and Thursday mornings after Mass for an hour or so are always good times. Food for thought: With God's help anything is possible. There's a lot going on and we need to continue to help each other. If you or someone you know can use assistance with anything, or if you'd like to volunteer to help around Campus, please call me at 928-377-3435 Steve Couch, Facility Manager. If I'm not in the office, leave a message and I WILL CALL YOU BACK. You may also call my cell phone at 402-415-1296 or email to scouch@stmarykingman.com. I'll do my best to help or find help or put you to work. I might add that if you see anything that needs attention, please let me know in person or with a call or email. Keep Smiling! And Praying! DON'T FORGET TO VOTE !!! Peace and May God Bless Us All!

MEMORIALS IN MEMORY OF A LOVED ONE

Occasionally someone will ask me; I would like to donate to something specific for the church in memory of my husband, wife, or someone else. Can you tell me what a contribution for a memorial would be used for and how much would it cost for each item needed for the church? Could I contribute towards the memorial in part if not in full? Here is a list of suggested needs in our parish that could be requested by you to be a memorial in memory of a loved one.

1. New Ciborium (Holy Communion gold vessels used at Mass). The ones we have are badly worn and need to be replaced. It is more expensive to have the ones we have re-gold plated.
2. An automatic bell ringer attachment for our church tower bell to announce the beginning of each weekend Mass as well as announce the hours of the day for reciting the church prayer the “Angelus” which should be recited at 6:00am, noon, and 6:00pm. This is still a traditional practice among many Catholics.
3. A matching chasuble and dalmatic vestment for the priest and deacon, (the outer garment the priest and deacon wear during Mass.) We need sets in green, white, red, and purple for the four traditional colors used at Mass.
4. A new sign for the front of the church to display the times of Mass, confessions, etc.
5. A new sign for the front door of the Parish Center to display office hours etc.

If you are interested, call the Parish Office at (928) 377-3435 to schedule a meeting with Father Victor.
