3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled ... You are witnesses of these things." - Lk 24:44, 48

Después les dijo: "Lo que ha sucedido es aquello de que les hablaba yo, cuando aún estaba con ustedes: que tenía que cumplirse todo lo que estaba escrito de mí en la ley de Moisés, en los profetas y en los salmos ... Ustedes son testigos de esto". - Lc 24, 44, 48

Reflection for Third Sunday of Easter: Year B
Third Sunday of Easter – April 14, 2024
Fr. Matthew Duclos

Readings: Acts 3:13–15, 17–19 • Psalm 4:2, 4, 7–8, 9 • among us.
1 John 2:1–5a • Luke 24:35–48 bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/041424.cfm

It's been said that the more you get to know someone, the more you realize that there is so much more to know about that person. If I learn tomorrow that my friend is a rock climber, all of a sudden more questions pop up: When did you start? Where do you go? How do you train? Learning this one fact makes me realize there's a whole lot more I don't know about the person.

What does it mean to actually know someone, not just know about them, but to actually know them through and through? Although my parents, married for over 35 years at this point, certainly know each other very well, they are still learning new things about each other.

Today's passage occurs just after Jesus' appearance on the Road to Emmaus. Two of them were walking on the road discussing all of the things that had occurred, namely the death and reports of the resurrection of Jesus, and Jesus himself began to walk with them. But, as Luke recounts, they "were prevented from recognizing him." Only after they invited Jesus to stay with them did they recognize him as he broke bread for them at the table.

We are in this year of Eucharistic Revival, a time for parishes throughout the country to preach and teach about the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Jesus Christ is fully present, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Eucharist, a gift freely given to the Apostles and indeed to each of us. And it is so often through this gift of the Eucharist that we come to encounter Christ, especially at Mass. We share the experience of the early Christians by how we recognize Jesus as the one truly present when we receive Him at the altar.

In the Sacrament of the Eucharist, we are invited into a profound encounter with the living Christ. It's not merely a symbolic gesture or a remembrance of past events; rather, it's a sacramental reality where the divine intersects with the human. This profound mystery of faith enables us to not only remember but to actively participate in the salvific work of Christ. As we partake of the Eucharist, we are united with Christ and with one another in a communion of love and grace, echoing the intimacy experienced by the disciples at Emmaus. The Eucharist becomes a pivotal moment where our encounter with Christ transcends the ordinary and leads us to a deeper understanding of his presence

Yet, although the disciples know who Jesus is and they have experienced him first-hand, they are still "startled and terrified" in the presence of Christ. He has to reassure them, inviting them to feel his wounds. He has to teach them that he indeed is the fulfillment of the prophets, he is the Christ who suffered and died and rose on the third day for the forgiveness of sins.

How do we get to know Christ? We can know a lot about him and develop a laundry list of facts and figures that describe things about Jesus, but can we claim, like the Apostles did, to know him? Not know about him, but know him? John's letter speaks about this in our second reading, he says "those who say, 'I know him,' but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them." Meaning that we learn to know Christ through his commandments, through what he teaches us about how to act.

Understanding Christ involves more than intellectual knowledge; it encompasses a personal, lived experience of his teachings. This experiential knowing is rooted in our daily interactions with his commandments, where we align our actions with his teachings. It's in the moments of applying his principles to our lives that we truly grasp the essence of who he is. By embodying his love, compassion, and mercy in our actions, we not only understand Christ intellectually but also connect with him on a deeper, spiritual level. This transformative process allows us to move beyond mere acquaintance to a profound intimacy with the Savior, shaping our relationship with him in profound ways.

Our relationship with the Lord is an ongoing one, and we continue to know Him and know about Him. We pray that the Lord continue to shine his face on us, continue to answer us in prayer, to have pity on us and place gladness into our hearts. We can know Christ in any number of ways, yet the most powerful is just as his early followers recognized him: through the breaking of the bread.

Saint of the week

St. Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles, was the most prolific Christian missionary of all time. Due to a miraculous experience that he had on the road to Damascus, he went from persecuting early Christians to traveling all over the region preaching the Gospel of Jesus.

Prayer in Times of Darkness

Dear Jesus,
When I feel troubled, alone, frightened, be with me. Be a flicker of flame in this darkness.
Help me to know you in the stark seasons as I do in times of elation.
You are the light I seek.
Amen.

The Twist Ending

Any reader of psychological thrillers will come across the “dead main character trope” fairly often. This is the famous Sixth Sense twist ending (I would say “spoiler alert,” but the movie is older than most of the people who work in Youth Ministry at your archdiocese, so you’ve probably seen it by now) where the reader finds that the main character has been dead for all or most of the story.

I’m always a little disappointed when this happens. It delivers shock value, sure, but it also undermines everything that happens in the story. You’ve come on a journey with this character, only to find out that nothing you saw transpire was real in the way you thought it was. You feel a little stupid, because the whole time you only had part of the truth.

I suspect Jesus knows this about us. He knows we don’t like to have the rug pulled out. It’s why he is so up-front about his humanity following the resurrection. See how Jesus, resurrected, shows the disciples his feet, his hands. See how he asks them for food and lets them watch him eat it. See how this creates in them an understanding, a belief.

The humanity of Jesus Christ is absolutely crucial. It’s what bridges the divide between the sons of Eve and the God she defied. Our reconciliation with God cannot happen unless human flesh pays the price that will balance the scales. Human flesh: skin that can tear and bleed, bones that can break, a mouth that can thirst, a stomach that can ache with hunger.

The passion and death of Jesus Christ is not a thriller with a twist ending: he was a ghost the whole time! The twist, if anything, is this: he was human the whole time.

“Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” — Luke 24:39

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

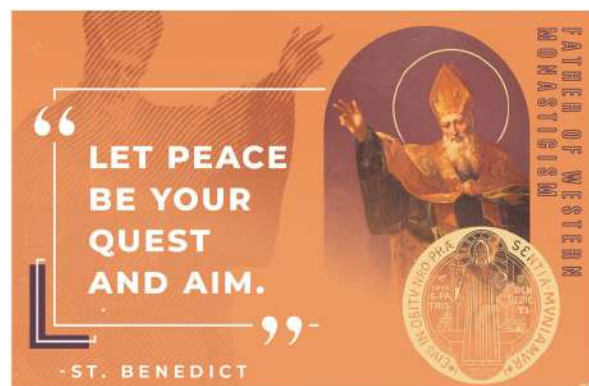

Question:

I’ve heard that we become angels when we die. Is this what the Church teaches?

Answer:

As human beings, we are both spiritual and corporeal. We are body and soul. This makes us unique in all creation. No other physical creature — plant or animal — possesses an immortal soul made in God’s image and likeness. Like the distinction with plants and animals, angels have an entirely different sort of existence. Angels are pure immortal spirit, and they have been so since the moment of their creation. While they may take on an appearance of a body in Biblical history, they are not a body like we are. Angels are neither male nor female, despite the art we often see.

As the result of the Fall, human beings experience death. Our souls are temporarily separated from our bodies. However, we do not become something other than human. Every Sunday in the Creed we profess “I believe in the resurrection of the body.” As Jesus was united with his body on the third day, so too will we be united with our bodies at the end of time.

Prayers for Ernesto Balderrama, Jr

We, the Balderrama family, (Ernesto, Sonia and children), would like to ask for your prayers for our son, Ernesto Balderrama, Jr...aka - Junior, 17 yrs. old. He has grown up in St. Mary. He received all his Sacraments of Initiation here. He was an altar server since 2015. He was a member of the CERS group since 2021 and more recently, was helping his sister, Mariela, with the Wednesday evening Youth Bible study group. He graduated from Lee Williams HS in May 2023 and has decided to dedicate some time to strengthen and learn more about his faith. He left on August 4, 2023, to join Christ of the Desert House of Formation, in Palmdale, CA. He will be on his formation journey for nine months, with other young adults, all of whom have chosen to live by the virtues of obedience, poverty, and chastity.

After the formation period, he will discern if he would like to make his promise to become a Missionary Servant of the Word for one year, serving in whatever mission he is sent to here in the United States. We ask for prayers from our St. Mary community to help Junior stay strong and not feel lonely, as this is the first time he will be away from his family and community for so long. Prayers to help him stay focused during this formation period and guard against all temptation, not only for him, but for all the young people who are on the same journey as him, sacrificing a part of their young lives to follow Jesus. They have chosen to leave the many temptations of the secular world and follow Jesus out into the desert to pray and meditate on what God is calling them to do. Pray and make sacrifices as well for more teenagers and young adults to open their hearts and hear and answer God's calling. We are responsible for faith formation of the youth of our Church. Let us not abandon them in their time of spiritual needs. There is a spiritual warfare going on now and let us not lose our children to it.

Thank you so much and may God bless you all and guard you from all evil.
