Reflection for the Most Holy Trinity Sunday: Year B
Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit
Rev. Victor Yakubu, Parochial Administrator

The teaching of the Church on the Most Holy Trinity is clear. The Trinity is a tripod of three persons in one God. They are not three gods but three persons in one God, undivided in unity and equal in majesty. The history of this teaching goes back to the promulgation of the Council of Nicaea in 325 A. D. when Emperor Constantine called an assembly of bishops and leaders of the Church.

The challenge was posed by the Arian heresy which taught that Jesus was not begotten but caused to exist by the Father and thus possessed the divinity of the Father. The relationship of Jesus to the Father was under serious question as taught by the Arians. The Nicene Creed retained Jesus as begotten by the Father just as we say it today. The Council Fathers agreed that Jesus is equal to the Father and that He was begotten and not made as he existed with the Father right from time immemorial. Other resolutions of the Council are setting the date for Easter, the structure of the episcopate and the formulations of canons to guide church leadership.

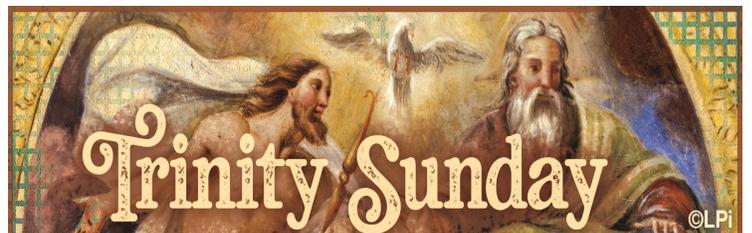

Did that confuse you? It should not be because the Bible offers us some understanding on the work of each. God the father revealed himself to the people of Israel through his saving act from Egypt to the Promised Land. The first reading shows Moses as leader under the authority of God the Father. Moses said to the people, “This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the Lord is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other.” God the Father protected them and provided for all their needs to assure them of his everlasting love.

When it was time, God the Son revealed himself by taking flesh to live among us and what theology calls incarnation. And so, Jesus is the image of the unseen God who came into our realm to show us his unending love. The gospel says, “All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me.” For one to possess such power, he needed to come from above. Then Jesus commanded the apostles to go into the whole world and make disciples from every nation with the gift of baptism “in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I commanded you.” When Jesus finished his mission, he promised the Church the support of the Holy Spirit which materialized on Pentecost.

There should be no disagreement on the roles of these three persons in one God. It was Tertullian (converted in 185 A. D.) who began to use the term, Trinity. He declared that though God was a unit, he could play many several personalities of Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The Council of Nicaea argued in that line and recognized the roles played by these personae at different points in the history of the people of Israel.

The point of today’s celebration is to remind us of the Godhead. Although the word Trinity is not mentioned in the Bible, there are many passages that point to the doctrine on Trinity. For example, Revelation 3: 5 -6 says, “The one who is victorious will, like them, be dressed in white. I will never blot out the name of that person from the book of life but will acknowledge that name before my Father and his angels. Whoever has ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches.” Within this text, we can see an indication of the three persons working in harmony.

The second reading offers us an encouragement, “Those who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.” All of us belong to the community of believers and we have been blessed by the work of God as Father through His Son Jesus Christ as we depend on the Holy Spirit to guide us into the unknown future. There should be no confusion as to the unity of the Godhead. Jesus promised us “I am with you always, until the end of the age.” Keep praying!

Important Announcements

[1]. Next Sunday, 6 June is the Feast of the Most Body and Blood of Christ, also known as Corpus Christi. We shall have a procession with the Blessed Sacrament and a Benediction at the end. The procession from 3:00 pm will follow this route: We start from the Church main entrance through the eastside to the courthouse on E. Spring street. Go south on N. 4th street, turn right on Oak Street, and turn right again on N. 3rd street and back to the church for final Benediction. This should take about an hour to accomplish. Please let us turn our en-masse to adore Jesus and show him to the world.

[2]. Fr. Victor Yakubu, the Parochial Administrator, will be on vacation from 20 July until 22 September 2021. The Diocese of Phoenix has approved his vacation extension to enable him to celebrate his Silver Jubilee with his home diocese in Zaria and with classmate, the bishop of Yola. While on vacation, Fr. Raymond Ogboji will supply pastorally for the parish. Fr. Ray, ordained in 2012, is a priest of Zaria studying in Rome. He will arrive Kingman on 28 June and depart on 27 September 2021. Please give him the best support while he is here. Pray for the safe travels of both.

[3]. The weekly adoration suggested by the Bishop Thomas Olmsted in his apostolic exhortation Veneremur Cernui (Down in Adoration Falling, Holy Thursday 2021) will come up soon. Parishioners who have not read the document should please do so. You can download the pdf online via our parish website. The printed/hard copies will be on sale anytime soon from the diocese. As soon as we get them, we shall distribute to our parish community to increase publicity of this exhortation on the Eucharist.

[4]. We encourage parishioners to sign-up for weekly one-hour adoration in the chapel from the website or call Amelia Kent, the Parish Secretary, with your details. Please consider giving time for prayer, meditation, rosary, bible reading, etc. before the Blessed Sacrament in the chapel.

[5]. As announced, we shall continue to keep the side doors to the Church closed every weekend or at any function in the Church. Use the main entrance to access the Church. From the inside, you can always exit the church by the side doors during an emergency.

[6]. Remember our parish picnic on 26 June at Metcalfe Park [Address: 315 W. Beale Street] from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm. Parishioners are welcome to celebrate with others. Also, there will be the burning of our mortgage papers, we do not owe on our church building. Thanks to the parishioners for the support to this project when it started in 2013. We shall be praying for the end of the pandemic and comfort to those who loss loved one. We shall remember our parishioners who died.

[7]. On Sunday 27 June 2021, Fr. Victor Yakubu, our Parochial Administrator is celebrating his Silver Jubilee of Priestly Ordination at the 9:00 am Mass. Please join hands with the Committee headed by David Kent and other leaders to make this a success.

[8]. Every time we are at Mass in the main church, the chapel will be closed from adoration. On Saturday it will close from 3:45 pm until 5:15 pm, and on Sunday from 8:45 am until 12:15 pm. Anyone wishing to engage in adoration should come outside of these timings.

[9]. Anyone wishing to join the Choir please call Amelia Kent to give their name indicating if they would like to sing at the Saturday Mass by 4:00 pm, Sunday 9:00 am mass, or the Spanish mass by 11:00 am. We encourage parishioners to use the hymn books in the pews to make the singing communal and participatory. St. Augustine of Hippo said, "He who sings, pray twice."

Summer Supply Priest for June 28th to September 27th

While Fr. Victor is on vacation Fr. Raymond Ogbodi will be our priest.

Fr. Raymond was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Zaria in Nigeria on July 14, 2012.

Fr. Raymond has served as Secretary to Bishop George Dodo, Bishop of Zaria and as assistant parish priest in Wusasa, Zaria. Fr. Raymond is currently in studies at the Pontifical Urban University in Rome, Italy.

Fr. Raymond has served in the Diocese of Phoenix as a summer assist priest since 2015. A "summer assist" priest serves in the diocese for the summer months.

Campus Corner

Peace Be With You! Thanks for helping to keep our Campus beautiful and safe. As we are now open fully, please continue to use hand sanitizers and continue to keep safe distance as much as possible. Let's together do what we can to not have any more Covid cases from this point forward. Please don't let your guard down now. Let's get this behind us!

We would like to start permanently setting our brick garden and some concrete/stone expertise would come in handy. We also have a couple of painting projects if anyone likes to paint. Who can help??? If you might like to assist with any projects, if you see something that needs attention, or if you or anyone you know needs assistance with anything, please call me on my cell at 402-415-1296. You can also email me at scouch@stmarykingman.com .

Food For Thought: It takes a team to make anything work right. With Jesus as our manager we can win every day, together ! Keep Smiling and Praying ! Peace And May God Bless Us All !

Prayers and Devotions

COME TO ADORATION

The best time you will spend on earth!

Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and rest. Mk 6:31

In the Garden of Gethsemane, before His crucifixion, Jesus asked His Apostles, "Could you not keep watch with me for one hour?"

Spending one hour with Jesus thus became a tradition in the Church.

Religious Formation News

Congratulations to all who received Confirmation and First Communion this weekend! May God continue to strengthen and bless you as you continue on your Christian way. R.E. classes have concluded for this catechetical year; keep an eye on the Parish Website for next year's schedules. Small Groups are forming now through the fall.

If you are interested in becoming Catholic please contact Dominic Blanchard at (928) 301-3953.

REQUIREMENTS PRIOR TO THE BAPTISM OF YOUR CHILD

In order to baptize your child in our parish, the following documents are required before you begin the process.

1. Must be registered parishioner
2. Must have child's birth certificate
3. Godparents must be a practicing Catholic, in good standing. This means they have received Confirmation (certificate is required). If they are married, a copy of their Catholic marriage is required. A letter of good standing and proof of completion of a baptismal preparation is required for both parents and Godparents These forms will be included in packet.

Preparation takes time. Please contact Donna Wicker at (760) 900-2336 to receive all necessary forms and information. I can not set a date for baptism unless all requirements are met.

Baptism Class

If you are pregnant, discerning to baptize your child or anticipating being a godparent within a year please take note of the Baptismal classes for the remainder of the year.
