THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven. - Lk 24:51

Levantando las manos, los bendijo, y mientras los bendecía, se fue apartando de ellos y elevándose al cielo.

Reflection for The Ascension of the Lord: Year C
A Crisis of Identity
Rev. Mark Suslenk

It's all out of control. Inflation, the economy, violence, oppression, greed, morality, and tensions are all escalating as people scurry about for a sense of stability and well-being. Power seems to win the game and self-aggrandizement appears to be the order of the day. Love gets watered down to tolerance and accepting whomever and whatever is presented. The axis around which meaning and truth are found is twisted. Human beings appear to be engaged in an identity crisis of vast proportion, not certain whether standard, acceptable, and appropriate protocols exist any longer. We are lost. When one nation feels entitled to the goods of another and feels justified using any means possible to obtain them, we are in trouble.

While this is happening most explicitly in Ukraine, there are other parts of the world where greed, exploitation, and violence are regular occurrences. Even in the United States, violent carjacking and general theft are becoming common place and a blatant disregard for human life seems more evident. We often act as if our journey of life is simply a random occurrence, that we are here on this planet for no known reason and accountable to no one. Norms and protocols, appearing to cater to personal preferences, become a matter of what protects each other's rights and space. Benchmarks and standards for growing, maturing, perfecting, and refining human thought and behavior no longer exist.

The world needs the Good News of the Ascension of Jesus Christ. Pope Francis tells us, "The Ascension does not point to Jesus' absence, but tells us that he is alive in our midst in a new way. He is now in the Lordship of God, present in every space and time, close to each one of us." If God is present in every space and time, then he is actively involved in what is happening in our lives. He works through both the positive and negative experiences we encounter, bringing us to a renewed and more focused place. The Ascension allows us to see this truth about ourselves and it enlightens our hearts. Christ, who was most perfectly, vividly, and brilliantly transfigured before the very eyes of the disciples will be our destiny.

Faith brings resolution to humanity's identity crisis. Faith corrects our misunderstandings of love. Faith seeks non-violent solutions to humanity's many conflicts. Faith removes our self-focus and deepens our vision. Faith provides the benchmarks we need to properly grow and mature. Faith provides the centering axis we need to order our lives. And only faith can give us real hope. Perhaps the cause of humanity's identity crisis is nothing other than an absence of faith. How can we believe that God takes a real interest in our lives if we do not believe in God in the first place?

The answers to all that plagues us are not easily found. However, before we can even think of repairing and constructing, we need to have solid plans and build a secure foundation. The Ascension reminds us of who God is, who we are and who we are meant to be. All we must do is believe in what God promises. In this way, we acquire our anchor for proper self-knowledge and a benchmark for judging actions.

When people are so angry, hurting, displaced, confused, and broken it is hard to convince them that there is a better way. The rise in addiction and mental health issues are indicative of social structures that are failing. When the inability of society to care for a child who is unwanted justifies the right to take that child in its mother's womb something is incredibly wrong. It is only faith that can tell us, without doubt, who we are. Any decisions made without that secure and foundational reference point are subject to serious error. There is no doubt that our lives can become unsettled and empty. When we rely too much on the things of this world to please us, we can easily lose our excitement, enthusiasm, wonder, and joy. No worldly thing, no matter how great, can satisfy the longing of a human heart. Only God does that.

Imagine how different life would be if everyone approached each moment as a creative opportunity to see what God will do. When encountered with faith, even darkness has great potential to become light. The neighbor who gets under our skin, the demanding coworker we see every day, the person at the supermarket who is rude to us, the elderly person we met on our daily walk who seemed so disheveled, the perfect sunrise that greeted us in the morning, and the wonderful aroma and taste of our first cup of coffee can all be used by God to awaken us, humble us, and bring us to a heightened sense of His presence.

If people really understood the power of faith, they would have a better sense of who they are and where they are going. It would be harder to take something from someone that doesn't belong to us, strike out in vengeful violence when we are hurt, allow greed to override the basic sanctity of human life, justify behaviors that are blatantly sinful and wrong, give in to the whims of desire and passion, and live life as if we are the only ones that matter. The world needs the Good News of the Ascension of Jesus Christ. Do not be reluctant to preach and accept the truth! Christ is our destiny and our hope. It's that simple. Alleluia!

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF PHOENIX

DECREE

Whereas, on April 2, 2020 I issued a decree allowing for general absolution within the Diocese of Phoenix when the priest could not gain access to the faithful as a result of restrictions imposed by an institution due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19), in accord with canon 961 §1, °2 and §2 of the Code of Canon Law;

Whereas, in accord with canon 961 §2, I have determined that the grave necessity of COVID-19 is no longer present to allow for general absolution;

Now therefore, with this decree, I hereby revoke the decree of April 2, 2020.

Priests are reminded that absolution cannot be imparted in a general manner to many penitents at once without previous individual confession (except in danger of death is imminent and there is insufficient time for the priest or priests to hear the confessions of the individual penitents) (canon 961 §1, °1).

Given at the Diocesan Pastoral Center, Phoenix, Arizona, on this 28th Day of April in the year of Our Lord 2022.

HOW CAN I KEEP FROM SINGING !!!!!

Surely some of you have been thinking and praying about joining the Choir?! We hear some great voices out there and invite you to help with leading the congregational singing. If you play an instrument of any kind, if you enjoy singing, if you feel called at all, please step forward. You are needed and wanted. Additional accompaniment is needed !!! Piano, keyboard, guitar, any instrument welcomed!! You don't have to participate every Mass or even every week. Pray about it. Is God Calling You ??? Is this the call? It's a wonderful, spirit filled, and fun Ministry. Pray about it some more and check it out! Feel free to check with any of us after Mass, call the office, reach out in any way for more information. You could even just join us for practice on Wednesdays at 4:30 pm in the Church. Everyone is WELCOME !!!

Rosary Group

Wednesdays at 10:00am in Parish Center: Room 5,6,7

If you are unable to attend the Wednesday rosary, but would like to be included in prayer, please leave your prayer petition on the clipboards in the Gift store. God Bless You.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

We all have our ideas of who God is. We have to remember, however, that our ideas of God often do not capture who God really is. God is a wonderful mystery whose identity is inexhaustible. This makes life an exciting journey in search of belief, love, glory, and unity. Displaying all of the tenderness of a real love story, we hear from Jesus that God wants nothing more than for the world to believe. The same depth of affection given to Jesus, God the Father desires to share with us. Receiving this love gives the believer an even greater understanding of what gives us purpose and meaning. With God's unconditional love as our anchor, we can endure the greatest of hardships knowing that we carry the hope of glory within us. Sharing in the same incredible eternal destiny and glory that God gave His Son, we can all be one just as Jesus and the Father are one. Why is understanding all of this important? Because given the myriad choices of what can possibly define us, we now have the primordial truth of who we are given to us by God. We know, beyond doubt, where to look for true happiness and where our lives will end.

Things to do during Eucharistic Adoration

Fr. Benedict Groeschel said there are “four kinds of prayer most appropriate in the presence of the Eucharist.”

Adoration and Praise
Thanksgiving
Repentance
Trusting Intercession

1. Pray the Psalms or the Liturgy of the Hours . Whether you are praising, giving thanks, asking for forgiveness, or seeking an answer, you’ll find an appropriate psalm. The ancient prayer of the Church called the Liturgy of the Hours presents an excellent way to pray through the book of Psalms throughout the year.
2. Recite the Jesus prayer
Say “Lord Jesus, have mercy on me, a sinner.” Repeatedly as you quiet your heart and mind.
3. Meditate using Scripture
Choose a passage from the Bible. Read the words and ask God to let the passage speak to you. Pay special attention to anything that strikes you and ask God what He wishes for you to draw from that passage.
4. Read the life of a saint and pray with him or her. Most holy men and women have had a devotion to Our Lord in the Eucharist. Terese of Lisieux, Catherine of Siena, Francis of Assisi, Thomas Aquinas, Peter Julian Eymard, Dorothy Day, Mother Theresa of Calcutta, and Baroness Catherine de Hueck are just a few. Read about them and pray their prayers before the Blessed Sacrament. (to be continued)

Honor guards are still needed for Thursday Call Paulette Dollarhide at 928- 753-5449. Join us on Sundays at 4:00 pm for Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Joan of Arc (1412 – 1431) has had her story told throughout history through many books, movies and plays. She was born in the village of Domrémy, near the province of Lorraine, to a French peasant family. At a young age, she began to experience visions and voices, which were later identified to be of St. Michael, St. Catherine of Alexandria, and St. Margaret of Antioch. At the age of 13, all three saints told her that she was to drive the English from French territory, and that she must bring the Dauphin to Reims for his coronation. Trusting in God, she did as she was told.

During the Hundred Years War, St. Joan of Arc led French troops against the English and recaptured the cities of Orléans and Troyes. Captured near Compiègne the following year, she was sold to the English and placed on trial for heresy and witchcraft, eventually being found guilty and burned at the stake in Rouen.

St. Joan of Arc was canonized by Pope Benedict XV on May 16, 1920, and is the patron saint of military members.

Knights of Columbus

Together we're empowering Catholic men to live their faith at home, in their parish, at work, and in the community. We are inviting all Catholic men age 18 and over to consider joining us. The Knights are known as "the strong right arm of the Catholic Church" and were founded on the principles of Charity, Unity, and Fraternity. We have recently been described as "good men at work doing Godly things; this is what the world needs". Our mission is to live upto that! Where there's a need there's a Knight! Our Council has been growing and becoming more vibrant and will continue that growth only with YOU! Surely you see us in action around the Parish. If you have ever thought about joining us, stop thinking, PRAY and JOIN! You can join for free online at www.kofc.org and Click on JOIN. When prompted put in Council # 3145. The Knights meet the first Thursday of every month at 6pm and would love to meet you! If you are a Knight new to Kingman, please consider transferring your membership to our Council. If you are a Knight visiting our area and happen to be here on a meeting night, feel free to join us as well. For more information please talk to any Knight after Mass, stop by our table in the vestibule, email steve.couch51@gmail.com, call or text 402-415-1296 or call 928-377-3435 ext. 4.

Campus Corner

Peace Be With You! Thanks for helping to keep our Campus beautiful and safe. Covid numbers are decreasing but don't let our guard down just yet. Please continue to use hand sanitizers, keep safe distance as much as possible, and consider wearing a face covering. We are sanitizing the Church, Chapel and Parish Center regularly.

Remember we have a Lost and Found in the Vesting Room next to the Gift Shop. We also have a power pack should you need help starting your car while on Campus. Lots of Spring projects around campus, inside and outside. If you'd like to add your assistance in any way around Campus, please call the office at 928-377-3435 extension 4, or call 402-415-1296, or email at scouch@stmarykingman.com. There's always something that can use an extra pair of hands and ideas. As always, if you see something that needs attention or if you need assistance with anything let us know. Food For Thought: Stop and smell the Roses, literally! They are fully in bloom and beautiful! Keep Smiling and Praying! Peace And May God Bless Us All!

Santa Juana de Arco | 30 de mayo

Santa Juana de Arco (1412 - 1431) ha tenido su historia contada a lo largo de la historia a través de muchos libros, películas y obras de teatro. Nació en el pueblo de Domrémy, cerca de la provincia de Lorena, en el seno de una familia campesina francesa. A una edad temprana, comenzó a experimentar visiones y voces, que luego se identificaron como las de San Miguel, Santa Catalina de Alejandría y Santa Margarita de Antioquía. A la edad de 13 años, los tres santos le dijeron que debía expulsar a los ingleses del territorio francés y que debía llevar al Delfín a Reims para su coronación. Confiando en Dios, hizo lo que le dijo.

Durante la Guerra de los Cien Años, Santa Juana de Arco dirigió las tropas francesas contra los ingleses y recuperó las ciudades de Orleans y Troyes. Capturada cerca de Compiègne al año siguiente, fue vendida a los ingleses y juzgada por herejía y brujería, y finalmente fue declarada culpable y quemada en la hoguera en Rouen.

Santa Juana de Arco fue canonizada por el Papa Benedicto XV el 16 de mayo de 1920 y es la santa patrona de los militares.
