Reflection for Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time: Year A
Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
 Fr. Brent Bowen

I remember the first time I read the Bible from cover to cover. I found Genesis and Exodus enthralling. There were lots of interesting stories and the narrative was easy to follow. Then I began reading the Book of Leviticus, the book from which today's first reading is taken. Suddenly I found myself somewhat lost in paragraph after paragraph of laws and prescriptions about the sacrifices prescribed by God, cleanliness, and a lot of other rules that seemed obscure and completely disconnected from my own life, making it very difficult to follow.

Then I got to chapter 19, part of which we hear at Mass today. In verses 1–2, we hear, “The Lord said to Moses, ‘Speak to the whole Israelite community and tell them: Be holy, for I, the Lord, your God, am holy.’” This, my friends, is the most important part of this chapter because it is the reason behind all of the law of Moses. God, whose essence consists in supreme holiness, has chosen this people to be peculiarly his own. He has freed them from their captivity in Egypt, and is now leading them through the desert into the promised land. Along the way, he instructs his holy people on how to be in relationship with an all-holy God and with one another. When we read the story of the Old Testament, it can be easy to get caught up in the details of the law, losing sight of this great truth: the reason God calls His people to observe these laws is because He is holy, and He desires them to have a share in His holiness.

Whenever he teaches, Jesus, who is the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, uses the same pedagogy. He teaches us to observe, not only the commandments that were once taught to the Jewish people so that we can share in His holiness. He also teaches us to go beyond the letter of those laws and arrive at the heart of the matter: “So be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect.” Jesus desires us to grow in the perfection of love in our hearts, that love which we received on the day of our Baptism when we became God's beloved daughters and sons.

Many times, when we hear his command to “be perfect,” in our minds and hearts we actually hear, “be a perfectionist.” I have seen many people struggle with this misperception. It is one that can ultimately lead to anxiety since, as human beings, we still deal with the effects of the Fall. Perfectionism is, at its root, reliance solely upon oneself. We give in to a false belief that we have to do everything correctly in order to be lovable. Many people find that even when they do things correctly, their accomplishments are never “good enough.”

When Jesus calls us to “be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect,” he is inviting us to place our trust in God, rather than ourselves. Just as God gave the Jewish people the law so they could share in His holiness, He who is the source of our perfection desires to share His divine life with us. He who calls us to perfection also gives us every grace we need to grow in holiness.

This is especially important in our dealings with others. Both teachings that we receive from Jesus today have to do with love of neighbor: “You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, offer no resistance to one who is evil.” Likewise, “You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.” Let's be honest: if we try to rely solely on ourselves to observe these commandments, we will inevitably fail. But God, the source of goodness, holiness, and perfection, delights in giving us the grace to realize that which is impossible.

In your dealings with others this week, pay close attention to those people with whom you struggle the most. Perhaps God is giving you opportunities to grow in love. You need only to ask him for patience and trust to treat others with the same love and concern that God gives to each of us.

Fr. Brent Bowen

Discovering the Amazing Riches of the Catholic Faith

What is the Catholic Church all about? What does it mean to be Catholic? What do Catholics actually believe? The Catholic Church is extraordinary. Founded by Christ himself, the Catholic Church is where we encounter God in his Word, his sacraments, and his saints. The Church faithfully proclaims the fullness of faith, leaving no truth out. It proclaims the fullness of life, leaving no person out. It calls all to repent and to believe in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the source of all life and salvation. Maybe you have been Catholic your entire life. Maybe you are just beginning to explore the Catholic Faith. Wherever you are in your journey, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and the richness of the Catholic Church. Join us as Marcelinho D'Ambrosio and Andrew Swafford presents and explains essential teachings of the Catholic Faith in a readable, approachable way.

This 10 week lesson we will discover

- * What Catholics truly believe
- * Who Catholics are and how we are called to live
- * The blessings of creation, redemption and newness of life in the Holy Spirit
- * The profound gift of the sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist, the source and summit of our Faith
- * How to imitate Christ through prayer, and through personal conversion, and through love for others
- * And More!

If you are interested in exploring your Faith, contact Grace Mc Nair at grace.mcnair@gmail.com as soon as possible so she can get you to order your books. We will begin this series on Tuesday, February 7 at 10 AM in the Parish Center.

Jesus instructed St. Faustina to spread the message of His endless mercy and forgiveness to those who seek it. Rooted in this message is trust: trust that Jesus loves us, desires to heal our souls, and is with us. This is an especially important message to expectant mothers. May we prayerfully consider how we are called to help mothers who may be struggling in a particular way. As Christ revealed to St. Faustina: "lay your head on my shoulder, rest and regain your strength. I am always with you." (Diary, no. 848)

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Of all the things Jesus says which seem totally bat-crazy, this one might take the cake: “But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you.” An enemy is someone who desires the destruction of you, your projects, or those you care about. To love and pray for them is to want their health, strength, and flourishing. But if they thrive, they are more likely to hurt you and others. So, aren't you indirectly willing your own destruction, or that of your friends? If you doubt that this problem is embedded in this teaching, when was the last time you actually prayed honestly for the people you really hate?

How can we solve this riddle so we might actually live this command? Recall that enemy-love is the surest sign that you love someone with God's love, and not with indirect egotism. After all, if my love for my enemy ends up hurting me or my loved ones, it can't be for me. Enemy-love costs more because there are no tit-for-tats. No reciprocity — just loved poured out, and often pain in return. That's why it is so precious and rare. “What is unusual about that?” asks the Lord about love for our friends. Jesus wants us to experience the unusual love which only comes from him.

When Jesus was being killed on the cross, he was loving his executioners. In fact, he was holding them in being as they nailed him to the cross. He loved those who were spiritually piercing his Mother's heart, while they were doing it. And when he rose from the dead, he showed us that this kind of love is always worth it. It's stronger than death. Real love is unusual.

Pro-Life

Pope St. John Paul II in 'Evangelium Vitae' applauds the daily heroism of mothers who selflessly devote themselves to their children. A culture that fails to truly value motherhood naturally becomes hostile to the gift of new life. There is a great need for real, tangible assistance for expectant mothers. In a world that often turns it back on mothers who sacrifice so much of themselves, may we the church members, rise to help mothers in need. Thank you to all who participated in the prolife rosary this weekend. Our prayers for LIFE are so important. Remember that we are looking forward to helping our local Pregnancy Center with a baby shower on February 18th-19th. Diapers size 1 to 5, clothing size 3 months- toddler, receiving blankets and accessories are much appreciated.

Prayer Reflection...

Fatherhood is first a spiritual reality, because fatherhood has its origins in God, as Our Father, sending his only Son for the sake of our salvation. Fathers therefore have a special role in 'reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God'. (Familiaris Consortio 25). To their children they must reflect the love of God the Father himself. They are called to show themselves as tender protector, living out the virtues of humility and courage. Especially in difficult circumstances, a father needs encouragement to faithfully accept the role entrusted to him by God to support the mother of his child.

Through the intercession of St. Joseph, patron of fathers, may they know their irreplaceable role in the lives of their children, and responsibility they share in welcoming God's gift of new life.

PLEASE REMEMBER THE BABY SHOWER 2/18-2/19
