THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." - Mk 14:23-25

Y tomando en sus manos una copa de vino, pronunció la acción de gracias, se la dio, todos bebieron y les dijo: "Esta es mi sangre, sangre de la alianza, que se derrama por todos. Yo les aseguro que no volveré a beber del fruto de la vid hasta el día en que beba el vino nuevo en el Reino de Dios". - Mc 14, 23-25

Reflection for The Most Body & Blood of Christ—(Corpus Christi): Year B
The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ—(Corpus Christi) – June 2, 2024
Fr. Madison Hayes

Readings: Ex 24:3–8 • Ps 116:12–13, 15–16, 17–18 • Heb 9:11–15 • Mk 14:12–16, 22–26

As we gather today to celebrate the solemnity of Corpus Christi, the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, the readings offer a profound backdrop to the significance of this liturgical feast. The primitive scene from the Book of Exodus paints a vivid picture of a rough-hewn altar, twelve stone pillars, and young men from the tribes of Israel sacrificing young bulls. The sacrificial scene becomes a tangible prefiguration of the Eucharist.

The burnt offerings symbolize Christ's voluntary surrender to the Father's will on the Cross. Christ's sacrifice, like the burnt offerings, ascends to God as a sweet savor. Our liturgy today is imbued with this sweet savor as we partake in the Eucharist, immersing ourselves in the grace emanating from Christ's self-offering. The peace offering in the Old Testament, signifying communion with God, likewise finds its fulfillment in the Eucharist, where believers experience real Peace and Communion with God. The Eucharist bestows upon us the peace that flows from charity.

Despite any squeamishness one might feel about the imagery of blood, Catholics, accepting Jesus' invitation to partake in His body and blood, find reason for praise. The real presence of Jesus — Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity — in the Eucharist is a source of joy and vocal praise, reminiscent of the disciples who sang a hymn before going to the Mount of Olives.

God, in His infinite wisdom, employs our sense experience of the Eucharist to communicate the spiritual nourishment and sweetness of His grace. Though hidden beneath the signs of bread and wine, we, as Christians, perceive the profound reality that "blood is poured, and flesh is broken." The sacrificial system of the old covenant, with its numerous offerings, served as a shadow, incapable of removing the world's sins. However, the blood of Christ, as the Letter to the Hebrews asserts, cleanses our consciences and enables us to worship the living God.

The old covenant's sacrificial rituals, such as the sprinkling of blood on the people, find their ultimate fulfillment in the new covenant sealed by Christ's own blood. This blood, poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins, resonates with Christ's words during the Last Supper, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many." The Church, in hearing the word of God proclaimed today, is reminded of being a new people, where the covenant of the past is perfected and fulfilled in Christ.

Christ, having entered the sanctuary with His own blood, obtains eternal redemption, marking a decisive departure from the old covenant's rituals involving the blood of goats and calves. Through the proclamation of Christ's paschal mystery in Sacred Scriptures and its present manifestation in the sacrifice of the Mass, the Church becomes the custodian of the New Covenant. As Christ's faithful, we receive and respond to the word of His covenant, nourishing our faith, making us holy, and uniting us by charity.

This transmission of the divine covenant nourishes us, enabling us to Passover to heavenly realities and anticipate the promised eternal inheritance. Our reception of the precious Body and Blood of Jesus becomes a foreshadowing of the joy that awaits us in eternity. It is a joy rooted in the vision of the Trinity, the clarity of conscience, and communion with the Church Triumphant — a joy that is immortal and incorruptible.

As we partake in this Eucharistic celebration, we reflect on the depth of the mystery we encounter — the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ — and pray that we may, for all eternity, delight in the divine life promised to us through this sacrament. May our communion today be a foretaste of the everlasting joy that awaits us in the presence of the Triune God.

Mass Intention Calendar 2025 Has Arrived!

Come schedule your 2025 mass intentions, first come first served.

Catholic Charities Therapeutic Foster Care is different than traditional foster care because it involves clinical intervention and placement of youth in specially trained foster homes. Children in therapeutic foster care must be medically approved for placement and tend to require more assistance with mental, emotional, and behavioral health needs.

Help support Catholic Charities Therapeutic Foster Care by donating these items:

- Indoor and Outdoor Games ages 10-17 (card games, board games, basketball, soccer ball, etc.)
- Journaling Items (journals, diaries, mandala coloring books, color pencils, drawing pads, etc.)
- Gift Cards for Clothing (Walmart, Target, etc.)
- Hygiene Items (toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant, body wash, etc.)

To donate or learn more, visit us at CatholicCharitiesAZ.org or call 928.708.7227.

Saint of the week

Throughout the late 20th century and into recent times, there have been many stories of Chinese Catholic heroism — priests, bishops, and laypeople who have been martyred by anti-Catholic government officials. We remember and honor those who have died for their faith in China.

Prayer of the True Presence

My Lord and my Love —
Bread of Life, nourish me.
Paschal Lamb, restore me.
Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, consume me as I consume you.
Amen.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

This Is My Body

A friend in high school once asked me why I wore a Crucifix around my neck. She was a Christian and very devout, so I was surprised at her confusion. "To remember Jesus' sacrifice," I said.

Her upper lip curled in disgust. "The cross is a sign of Jesus' sacrifice," she said. "He's not on the cross anymore. It's really weird that you wear his dead body."

As someone raised Catholic, the Corpus was an image I knew intimately. We had Crucifixes all over our home, everyone in my family did. And for reasons I couldn't quite explain, I actually preferred them over the plain crosses I saw elsewhere. The crosses seemed more elegant, more refined — but the Crucifixes felt more complete. More to-the-point.

My friend's disgust compelled me to reflect, in a way I never had before, on the image of Christ's body, wounded and twisted and tortured. Why was this a visual that compelled me? It didn't make a lot of sense for someone who abhorred dead bodies so much that I found it difficult to look into a casket at a wake. So, what was different about this?

My friend wasn't wrong: Christ is no longer on the cross. The sacrifice has been made. But does that mean it is over? We re-present it every single Mass. It's the point of everything that we do. Jesus did not sacrifice his spirit; he sacrificed his body. He bought us with every tear of the flesh, with every drop of blood.

The cross is crucial, yes. But that wood didn't bleed for us. If the body wasn't the point, Jesus would not have become human at all. Jesus needed the body.

We need it, too.

"While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take it; this is my body.'"
— Matthew 26:26

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What are the "fruits" of holy Communion?

Answer:

The Eucharist, like all sacraments, offers its own unique grace. We receive a special share in God's life that helps us in our faith journey. We are given all we need to sustain and nurture our relationship with God. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. Everything we are and everything we hope to become is found in this sacrament. It is essential to the life of the church, to each member of the church. Without it, there is no church. The Eucharist is the center of our spiritual life and has enormous effects on our growth, our holiness, and our way of life. The fruits of holy Communion are the benefits one receives from the sacrament. These fruits of holy Communion are discussed in the catechism in the article on the Eucharist. The primary benefit is union with Christ. We become one with him sacramentally, just as we hope to become one with him for eternity. The Eucharist also separates us from sin, both past and future. It forgives the venial sins of the past and, by the love we receive, protects us from mortal sin in the future. The church community is also unified and strengthened by the Eucharist. It unites us to the poor and offers the pledge of eternal life.

Prayers for Ernesto Balderrama, Jr

We, the Balderrama family, (Ernesto, Sonia and children), would like to ask for your prayers for our son, Ernesto Balderrama, Jr...aka - Junior, 17 yrs. old. He has grown up in St. Mary. He received all his Sacraments of Initiation here. He was an altar server since 2015. He was a member of the CERS group since 2021 and more recently, was helping his sister, Mariela, with the Wednesday evening Youth Bible study group. He graduated from Lee Williams HS in May 2023 and has decided to dedicate some time to strengthen and learn more about his faith. He left on August 4, 2023, to join Christ of the Desert House of Formation, in Palmdale, CA. He will be on his formation journey for nine months, with other young adults, all of whom have chosen to live by the virtues of obedience, poverty, and chastity.

After the formation period, he will discern if he would like to make his promise to become a Missionary Servant of the Word for one year, serving in whatever mission he is sent to here in the United States. We ask for prayers from our St. Mary community to help Junior stay strong and not feel lonely, as this is the first time he will be away from his family and community for so long. Prayers to help him stay focused during this formation period and guard against all temptation, not only for him, but for all the young people who are on the same journey as him, sacrificing a part of their young lives to follow Jesus. They have chosen to leave the many temptations of the secular world and follow Jesus out into the desert to pray and meditate on what God is calling them to do. Pray and make sacrifices as well for more teenagers and young adults to open their hearts and hear and answer God's calling. We are responsible for faith formation of the youth of our Church. Let us not abandon them in their time of spiritual needs. There is a spiritual warfare going on now and let us not lose our children to it.

Thank you so much and may God bless you all and guard you from all evil.
