By Fr. Michael Bruno

In the Rite of Baptism, the priest or deacon prays over the newly baptized child in the very manner in which our Lord heals in today's Gospel. Touching the ears and mouth of the child, he prays the following words: "The Lord Jesus made the deaf hear and the mute speak. May he soon touch your ears to receive his word and your mouth to proclaim his faith, to the praise and glory of God the Father."

The invocation after Baptism of this miraculous encounter in Mark's Gospel is a reminder how the Lord Jesus has individually called and claimed each one of us, just as he called the man in today's Gospel to come aside and move away from the crowds. In Baptism, He has opened our ears to the Gospel of salvation, which we hear proclaimed within His Church, allowing us to grow in knowledge and love of Him. He has opened our mouths and called us to herald His saving presence in the world by "speaking plainly," drawing others to Him through our words and in the manner of our lives. As St. James explains in today's epistle, God has chosen "those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom . . ." The Church, therefore, finds in the miraculous healing of today's Gospel an image of how each one of us has been healed by Christ and sent forth as His disciples and witnesses in the world. We have been rendered sons and daughters of the Father made whole in Christ. Already foreshadowed in today's Gospel is the moment when the Lord Jesus will again look to heaven and groan, but this time it will be from the cross, as He offers Himself completely and totally to the Father for the healing and salvation of all the world.

The reaction of the crowds to this miracle is noted as "astonishment." The Lord's miraculous works are signs of God's salvation fulfilling the prophetic promises made to the people of Israel in exile. As we hear in Isaiah's prophecy, the coming of the Lord will be marked with the vindication and recompense of God, which will be manifested in the restoration of sight, hearing, movement, and speech. The coming of the Lord will, therefore, be a moment of renewal and restoration, a "re-creation" brought about in the promised Savior. No surprise, therefore, that our Lord is met with astonishment, as His miracles and wondrous works fulfill the prophet's words and manifest God's salvation both for the man who is healed and, indeed, for all humanity.

Today's Gospel, therefore, bids us to consider our own lives as disciples and witnesses of Christ. Asking today for the Lord's healing once again, we seek His mercy for the ways we have been blind to His presence and His workings in our life. We ask forgiveness for the moments when we failed to hear and heed His word in our own words and deeds. Approaching the Lord Jesus this Sunday in the Eucharist, we marvel in astonishment, as He calls us uniquely and personally to healing and wholeness in Him. As we receive Him, He again opens our eyes and ears, sending us forth into the world to proclaim the good news of salvation. For with awe and thanksgiving for His marvelous works, we too proclaim with all our hearts how truly "He has done all things well!"

If you are interested, please contact David Hunter at 714-726-6130. Thank you,

Donate your Change

Be sure to pick up a special offering box or can at the back of the church. Write that it's for the building fund, your name and phone number on it before you turn it in.

All monies will go toward future building improvement projects in the parish campus.

Brick Garden

We are continuing to take brick orders. This is a wonderful way to pay honor to someone you love or to be remembered as part of St. Mary history for years to come. Bricks are $50 for a 4x8 and $100 for a 8x8. Call the Parish Office for an order form or to place your order.

The brick garden is growing — don't miss the opportunity to be a part of it.

Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

Are you, or do you know someone who...
 Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
 Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?
 Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?

In St. Mary's Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) program, we offer small group sessions designed to introduce (or re-introduce) the Faith to those who seek full communion with the Catholic Church. Sessions focus on the wisdom and experiences of the Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

Our first gathering will take place on Monday, August 26th from 6:30-8:00pm at the Parish Center. We invite you to come explore our OCIA community and share your questions, your insights, and your faith story in a warm, welcoming setting.

These gatherings are for teens and adults, 15 years and older. Children attend their own sessions on Thursday evenings from 5:30-7:00pm, and will be registered in the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults Adapted for Children (OCIA-C) program.

To register, please visit our Religious Education Registration page (https://stmarykingman.com/childrens_cat_registration), and click on the "Register Here" button.

Paper forms are also available at the Parish Center during normal business hours.

We look forward to walking with you on your spiritual journey!

Altar Flowers

Parishioners now have the opportunity to contribute to the altar flowers "In Memory" or "In Honor" of a loved one.

Donation is $50, there are two bouquets for the altar. It is your choice of donating for one or two. The names will be published in the bulletin.

INTO THE FOLD

INTO THE FOLD Ministry receptions welcome new parishioners (and an opportunity for ALL Parishioners) to get together and check out all of our ministries and groups and to socialize. Our next reception: TBA
 So, keep an eye-out to see when our next reception will take place!
 God bless! For more information, contact Rina: caterinar1986@gmail.com

Saint of the week

St. Caterina Volpicelli (1839-1894) left a life of elegant Neapolitan society to serve the Lord. She adhered to the Apostleship of Prayer, dedicating each day to the Sacred Heart. Her order, the Servants of the Sacred Heart, opened an orphanage, a lending library, and nursed cholera victims.

Prayer for Grandparents

Dear God,
What a grace to live in a world of all ages and stages.
Bless our grandparents, today and always.
Thank You for their experiences, wisdom, and insight.
Thank You for the gifts they bring the Church.
Thank You for the lessons they teach the next generations
Amen.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Be Opened

There are several moments throughout the calendar year when we are tricked into thinking we can reinvent ourselves.

One of them is New Year's Day. The barista at my coffee shop told me that they sell more decaf coffee in January than in the entirety of the remaining year, because everyone is swearing off caffeine. By February, she said, the trend subsides: folks have realized they're not actually superheroes just because the last digit of the year has increased by one.

The beginning of a new school year is another of those moments. Every pencil is freshly sharpened, and every lesson plan is painstakingly plotted. Our heads are full of what we plan to do this year, how we plan to do it, who we plan to become.

But by May, the wind is out of our sails. We've learned the concepts, we've used up the pencils, yes — but we've remembered that underneath it all we're basically the same people, with the same shortcomings and the same obstacles as we always were. The only difference in September was we had new planners.

The truth is that we cannot reinvent ourselves. We can't change ourselves at all, not on New Year's Day or the first day of school or on our 40th birthday or after quitting a bad habit. We are what we are: blind in some ways, deaf in others, crippled in still more, moving through life with uncertainty, stumbling in the dark.

People don't change. Not without miracles.

But being a Christian means believing in miracles and being ready for them at any moment — in January or in September, in the middle of a hopeless week or at the end of a bad day, when you feel strong and when you don't, when you want to be better and when you feel too tired to try.

No, we can't change ourselves, but we can be changed. There is one who can change us if we will let him. He is waiting — now, tomorrow, yesterday, next week. The time is always right for a miracle.

"He put his finger into the man's ears ... and said to him, 'Ephphatha!'— that is, 'Be opened!' —And immediately the man's ears were opened ..."
Mark 7:34-35

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What is the history behind feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross?

Answer:

Emperor Constantine's mother, Helena, is credited with having discovered the true cross around 330. She traveled to the Holy Land and uncovered the places associated with Jesus' life. Legend has it that Helena uncovered three crosses but was not able to detect the true cross until each of them was laid on a leper. Only one of them cured the leper, proving it to be the true cross. A great church was built at the site, and soon various portions of the cross were sent to other churches as relics to be venerated.

The day after the dedication of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, September 14, 335, the actual cross was displayed for veneration. Egeria, a women traveler to Jerusalem around the year 386, kept a diary that has survived. She tells of the unique veneration of the wood of the cross that took place on Good Friday, something maintained ritually to this very day.

The Exaltation of the Holy Cross focuses on the gift of love that Jesus manifested by his total gift of self, offered for all. The cross, the ultimate form of capital punishment in its day, has become for us the ultimate symbol of love and triumph over evil and death.

HAND CARVED in BETHLEHEM

PLEASE STOP BY THE TABLES OF RELIGIOUS WARES (Nativity set, rosaries, statues, crucifixes, charms, etc.) AFTER ALL THE MASSES THE WEEKEND OF (September 21 & 22).

Ayman Khair is representing about 180 Christian families from Bethlehem. These families have been dependent upon sales of their hand carved religious articles to tourists of the Holy Land. Due to the conflict in the Middle East and the War tourism has been stopped completely.

It is very important to support them at this critical time since they have no income and there is no tourism at all. In order to survive, they have turned to Christian communities in the United States to purchase their articles.

These hand carved religious articles are beyond description. Carved from wood of the sacred Olive tree, this workmanship has been traditional for these families for hundreds of years. It is hoped that through the efforts of Mr. Khair, these families who have little income will be able to stay living and survive in the Holy Land.

Sadly enough, the Christian population dropped from 22 % to less than 2% in the last 20 years. Thank you in advance for your support.

Name of Class “ JAMES, Pearl for Wise Living”

Looking for an anchor to hold you steady through the storms of life? Want the secret to find joy in the midst of trials? Interested in learning to recognize the source of discord and the way to peace? James, one of the most practical books of the Bible, is a collection of teachings on issues faced by ordinary Christians in everyday life. In James’ Pearls for Wise Living, presenter Jeff Cavins shows how the teachings of James speak to those of us who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and our Faith. Meant to help a fledgling church live out its Faith in the face of persecution and a worldview opposed to the gospel, in James you’ll discover wisdom you can apply to the present.

If interested, you may contact Grace McNair at grace.mcnaire@gmail.com. We will be meeting at the Parish Center on Tuesday mornings at 10. We will meet each second and fourth Tuesday each month for eleven weeks. You can contact Grace McNair at grace.mcnaire@gmail.com You can order your workbook by going to ascensionpress.com and look through the series of the Great Adventure and search for the title “Jame Pearls for Wise Living”. If you do not have a computer I can order for you.

So far in August, through your gifts, St. Mary Conference of St. Vincent de Paul was able to hear the cries of the poor by assisting 335 people, providing over $9,000 in food; over $2,200 for utilities, plus other assistance. God Bless You!

Prayer

Dear God, you are so amazing. Thank you for healing the deaf man. Help me to use my ears and my voice to praise you.

Mission for the Week

Go to the library and find out how to say "Jesus loves you" in sign language. On the way home, pretend you cannot hear or speak. family. Heaven will be wonderful!

Sharing the Gospel

Imagine what it would be like to be deaf-unable to hear music, voices or anything. In today's Gospel reading, Jesus did something amazing.

Jesus healed a deaf man, so that for the first time he could hear and talk clearly. What would you listen to? What would you say?
