Everyday Stewardship - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Giving as God does

Ask yourself this question — what would you pray for if you really believed God could and would do anything for you? In my experience, we all have something. We all have that miracle we're afraid to request, afraid we will be disappointed.

Do we doubt God's readiness to give because we ourselves have such an imperfect understanding of charity and love? Maybe if we had better faith in God we would be more ready to give of ourselves — and maybe if we were more ready to give of ourselves, we would understand more clearly the ways of God.

Because we're not really afraid that God can't do something. We know He can do anything. What we're afraid of is that He will do what He always does: give us what we need, not what we want.

Have you ever had a friend in need and you just wanted to give them something — a meal, a phone call, a text? Not because you knew it would help, but simply because you wanted to reach out. And have they ever said to you: It wasn't so much what you gave, but the fact that you did. You gave them what they needed even if it wasn't what they specifically asked for.

When we give in this manner, we are giving as God does. Sometimes we are afraid to ask because we don't want to be disappointed. But remember, the blind man on the road got what he asked for, but he would have gotten what he needed even if his answer had been the opposite. God's generosity is always reckless, and it's always perfect.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Bartimaeus called upon Christ, even when everyone scolded him to be silent. He was not afraid to ask God for what he needed, and his courage was rewarded. Be like Bartimaeus. Be bold. Do not be content with the darkness. Call out for Christ.

Saint of the week

Venerable Anne de Guigné (1911-1922) had a profound understanding of Jesus' presence in the Holy Sacrament. She developed a strong personal relationship with Jesus, declaring that she loved to talk with "little Jesus."

Prayer for Courage

"Take courage," we hear,
"Jesus is calling you!"
Jesus, give me the grace to respond to your call — your invitation to what I don't understand, to the unknown,
the mystery. In these spaces, your grace abounds. Be with me, give me courage!
Amen.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

The Safety of Darkness

Leprosy and blindness and deafness — oh, my. The disabilities cured by Jesus in his public ministry really are quite something, aren't they? Vividly symbolic and rich food for reflection. It just wouldn't be the same if Jesus had cured eczema or athlete's foot or compulsive nail-biting.

Blind Bartimaeus, sitting by the side of the road, in particular captures my imagination. Because I have a confession to make, sometimes, I like to sit in the darkness, even though I know it isn't very good for me.

Well, listen: it's just easier, isn't it? You don't have to care about or fix the problems you can't see. No one expects you to rush to someone's aid if you don't see their injuries. The darkness is a good place to be, if you don't feel very brave or very smart or very able.

And when Jesus passes you by, if your whole world is darkness, it's easy enough to pretend you just didn't notice him at all.

But Bartimaeus chose not to stay in his darkness. More than that, he cried out to be released from it, even when everyone around him told him to shut up. He was so persistent that he caught the notice of Jesus, and when he heard those words — "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you!" — what did he do? He didn't stammer and run away. He had courage. He got up.

It takes courage to ask for what you need to follow Christ. Because if you ask for it, you'll get it. And then begins the terrifying, wonderful journey of discipleship — testifying to what you have seen. Life in the light, no longer sitting by the side of the road but on the road, journeying toward the greatest destination of all.

"What do you want me to do for you?" Jesus asks us.

Do we have the courage to answer him?

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

November is called the month of All Souls. More recently, it has been called the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. Can you tell us more about this feast and the remembrances of this month?

Answer:

November 2, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, dovetails with November 1st, the feast of All Saints. The saints, our models of Christian living, are one with God in heaven. All the faithful departed are those who have died with hope and trust in a loving God who calls us to greater growth and development, even beyond death. This growth and development occurs in a state of being that we have traditionally called purgatory.

While the Western Church has emphasized the cleansing and purifying nature of purgatory, the Eastern Orthodox Church has emphasized the growth and development aspect of it. Today, belief in purgatory allows one who has died in Christ to continue growing and developing before meeting God face to face. God continually invites communion with these loved ones, but some feel the need to continue growing and developing before entering into full communion with God.

These November feasts vividly remind us of the rich reality known as the communion of saints. This belief stresses the strong affirmation that the church is always one in Christ. Death does not sever any of the bonds that unite us in Christ. That is why it is a fitting practice to pray for the dead and to ask them to pray for us. Just as we do that for each other when we are alive, so, too, do we continue that bond and concern for each other even beyond death.

Parish News and Events

Parochial Administrator's Corner

vacation time and some parish news

After Sunday masses this weekend, I shall set out for my vacation to Nigeria. It's important for me to take this opportunity to decompress, relax, and refresh my spirit to return strongest for work. Therefore, from 27 October until 15 December, I shall be on vacation. A few activities are lined-up for me already.

Callistus, my brother is getting married in early November. Then Christopher, another brother, will also take a wife by the end of November. Ruth, my cousin, will be marrying in early December. Lastly, Cornelius, the last child of eight siblings, will have a wife by February 2025. I may likely have to return for that last wedding by next year. From the look of things, the vacation is already saturated with three weddings involving dance, good food, and some fun. I ask of your prayers for my family and the spouses coming in or going out.

As I leave for vacation, please note the following for our St. Mary parish community. The Deacon Francis Staab will take charge of pastoral activities with Fr. Julius Kayiwa celebrating the mid-week masses. Early week masses and Friday masses won't be available as no priest is coming in residence. However, the Rev. Matthew Lowry, the Episcopal Vicar of the North from Flagstaff will come every weekend for masses. He will alternate that with his associate. Thanks for their generosity in coming from Macedonia to help us.

The two new staff will resume work in November. Richard Rabaiotti, the new parish manager, and the new parish secretary, will add new vigor and willpower to our parish community. Please pray for them and support them in their respective positions. Richard will work with the parish councils to raise funds for our parish hall remodeling project alongside the office remodeling from 2025.

We hope to begin the new year 2025 with the Bishop John P. Dolan coming on January 1 to celebrate mass by 10AM and declare the Jubilee Year of Hope as promulgated by Pope Francis. The big news here is that St. Mary is chosen by the Bishop Dolan as a pilgrimage center for Catholics to visit and attend mass thereby gaining some plenary indulgences. I urge you to prepare for this visit and pray along with the bishop for God's graces on our families throughout the jubilee year and always.

Lastly, I request your prayers. I shall visit my new bishop in my Diocese of Zaria, Bishop Habilah T. Daboh, the second bishop of my diocese. He hopes to visit Kingman in mid-2025.

As a country, Nigeria is in a difficult situation right now. For those of you who have lived long enough, you will discover that Nigeria has been in a long battle with terrorism leading to kidnappings, a failing economy, high inflation, and a currency devaluation. I can only ask of your prayers for God to allow me to remain safe and sound at this difficult moment in my country. The lined-up activities above should keep me busy until I return to work in December.

My joy is that my mom is waiting eagerly to spoil me with lavish dishes I have missed. I will eat the best I can and avoid gaining extra weight. Wishing you God's choicest blessing as America votes for the next president on Tuesday 5 November 2024. God bless America.

- Father Victor.
