Everyday Stewardship - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Daily Examen of Stewardship

“Stewardship” can get a bum rap these days. When folks hear the term “stewardship” from the pulpit, their eyes tend to kind of glaze over. “Here’s Father asking for more money,” they groan inwardly, “Get ready for the passing of the pledge cards.”

Christ refutes this idea when he gives us what he calls the greatest commandments — instructing us to love God and to love our neighbor. Now, Christ is a man who chose his words carefully. He meant exactly what he said — and he didn’t say that the greatest commandments were to tithe and to give money to charity. If he had wanted stewardship to be only about money, he would have said so.

Sometimes we are indeed called to show our love for God and neighbor in the form of a financial gift. But the concept of Everyday Stewardship — living mindfully in prayer, grateful for our blessings, and gracious to our neighbors, committed to God, and accountable to each other — is about so much more.

I propose a twist on the long-held practice of the “Daily Examen” — a pious devotion wherein, at day’s end, we go over the events of the last 24 hours and discern God’s will. A Daily Examen of Stewardship might contain questions like this:

How did I love God today? In whom did I love Him?

What did God give me today? With whom did I share it? What did I give to Him?

To whom did I reach out today? Who reached out to me?

Where was God on my list of priorities today? First? Second? Third, fourth?

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

All Our Strength

I didn't realize how much my arms would hurt when I became a mom.

It occurred to me first during Mass when my daughter was just a few weeks old. She was the kind of kid who could only sleep in someone's arms. I desperately wanted her to stay quiet during the service, so I held the swaddled bundle in front of me like it was a bomb, not daring to move. By the homily, my arms were on fire.

I quickly realized this was a common scenario of my new life as a parent. Holding, rocking, bouncing, restraining, dragging — honestly, my weak little chicken-arms had never been worked out like this before. It took all my strength.

But isn't that the way it is with everything that's worthwhile? It takes all your strength. Not some of it. Not most of it. All of it.

I am a fairly active Catholic. My faith impacts a lot of areas of my life. But there are still boundaries that I've drawn around God. There are places I haven't let Him in. Things I keep "for myself." Experiences that are just so full of me, so full of my own plans and my own desires.

But God desires everything. Not because He is selfish, but because He is good, and wise. Because He knows that the places we keep from Him will become filled with something else. He wants to get there first. He wants to lay His claim.

He wants all our strength. All our heart. All our soul. All our mind. Not most of it. All of it.

Can we give it to Him?

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

How can we pray for the dead throughout the year?

Answer:

We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

“JAMES, Pearl for Wise Living”

Looking for an anchor to hold you steady through the storms of life?

Want the secret to find joy in the midst of trials?

Interested in learning to recognize the source of discord and the way to peace?

James, one of the most practical books of the Bible, is a collection of teachings on issues faced by ordinary Christians in everyday life. In James' Pearls for Wise Living, presenter Jeff Cavins shows how the teachings of James speak to those of us who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and our Faith. Meant to help a fledgling church live out its Faith in the face of persecution and a worldview opposed to the gospel, in James you'll discover wisdom you can apply to the present.

If interested, you may contact Grace McNair at grace.mcnair@gmail.com. We will be meeting at the Parish Center on Tuesday mornings at 10am. We will meet each second and fourth Tuesday each month for eleven weeks. You can contact Grace McNair at grace.mcnair@gmail.com You can order your workbook by going to ascensionpress.com and look through the series of the Great Adventure and search for the title "James Pearls for Wise Living". If you do not have a computer I can order for you.

Ways to Support Your Parish

St. Vincent de Paul

Our St. Mary Conference of St. Vincent de Paul continues to provide assistance to the needy in our community based solely on donations.

When people call to donate furniture that has to be picked up, we often have to decline because of a lack of volunteers, thus impacting what assistance we can provide.

We are especially in need of able bodied men.

Please consider volunteering a few hours a week. WE NEED YOU!

Dona al Fondo Mariachi

La comunidad hispana de St. Mary's está recolectando donaciones para ayudar a cubrir el costo de 4 horas de música de mariachi en el Rosario de la Virgen de Guadalupe, la Misa, la recreación y la comida compartida.

¡Nuestra meta es recaudar $1500 antes del 11 de diciembre! Las donaciones se pueden hacer en las cajas que se encuentran en la parte trasera de la iglesia durante las misas de fin de semana.

Donate to Mariachi Fund

The Hispanic community at St. Mary's is collecting donations to help cover the cost of 4 hours of mariachi music at the Virgen de Guadalupe Rosary, Mass, reenactment, and potluck.

Our goal is to raise $1500 before December 11th! Donations can be made in the boxes in the back of the church at weekend Masses.

Make your offering to St. Mary online!

Just scan the QR code below with your smartphone camera.

Then, just click on the link, choose your donation amount, and enter your payment information. It's that easy!

We are still looking for a Parish Secretary.

If you are interested, please visit or call ((928) 377-3435) the parish office to have Deacon Francis contact you.

Parishioners now have the opportunity to contribute to the altar flowers "In Memory" or "In Honor" of a loved one.
