Weekly Scripture

Virtues, Explained!

In the modern lexicon, the quality of "kindness" is often equated with politeness — but real, virtuous kindness is so much more. Virtuous kindness is a way of seeing others through the eyes of God.

God is not polite — God is kind, and His kindness is abundantly evident in all of creation. It was suspicion of this divine kindness that precipitated the fall of Adam and Eve (CCC 214), and it was this unfailing kindness that facilitated our own adoption as God's children, conformed to the image of His son (CCC 257).

Also known as benevolence or beneficence and derived from the theological virtue of charity, kindness is a fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22) and is a central theme in the famous parable of the Good Samaritan. In practicing kindness and seeking the good of another without prejudice or condition, the Samaritan reflects God's own plan of loving kindness for us.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading

Resplendent and unfading is wisdom,
and she is readily perceived by those who love her,
and found by those who seek her. (Wis 6:12)

Psalm

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God. (Ps 63)

Second Reading

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose,
so too will God, through Jesus,
bring with him those who have fallen asleep.
(1 Thes 4:14)

Gospel

"Therefore, stay awake,
for you know neither the day nor the hour."
(Mt 25:13)

Live The Liturgy

Inspiration of the Week

The Christian life is a life of waiting, for the Bridegroom is long delayed. We can grow too comfortable in the waiting that we forget what it's all for. So let us look to our lamps and always remember — the waiting will not last forever.

Liturgical Life

St. Martin of Tours

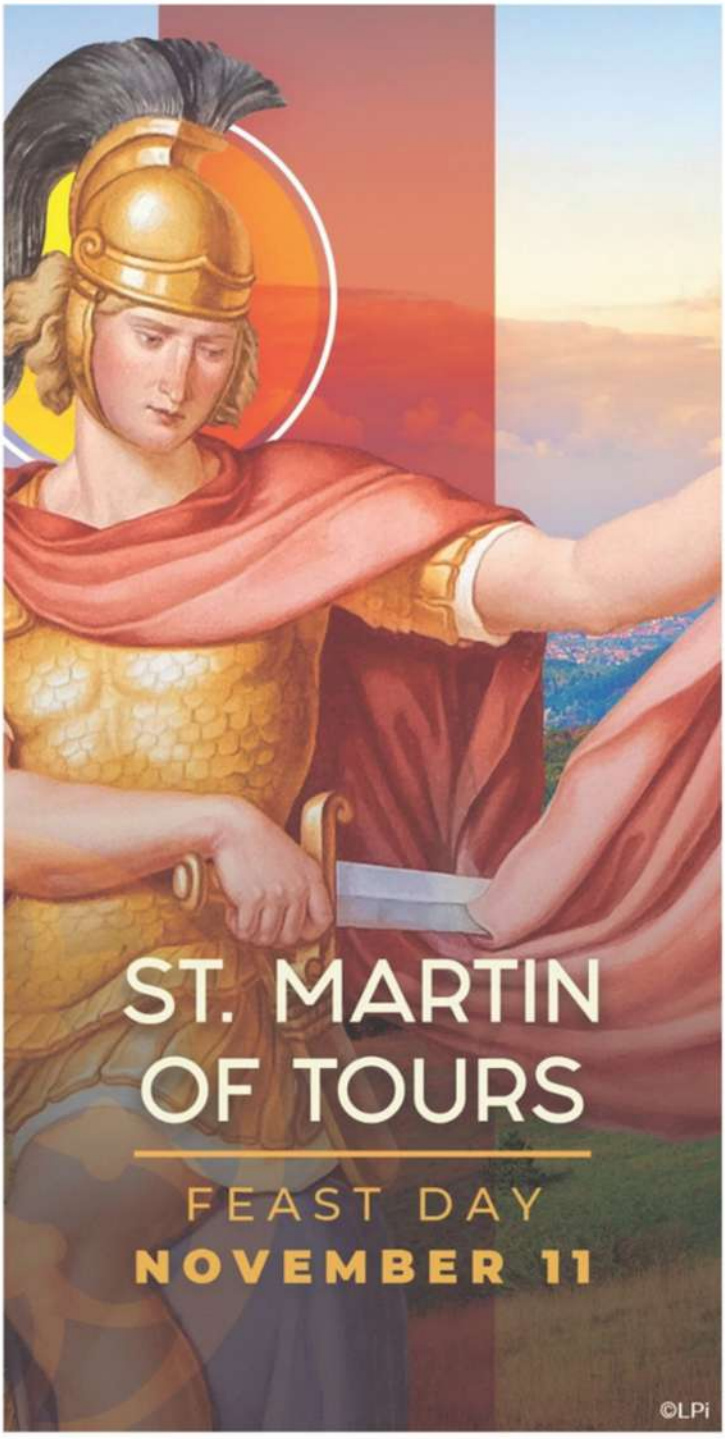

Pray for us!

St. Martin of Tours was born around 316 in what is now Hungary and raised in Italy. Forced into the Roman army at 15, he was already a catechumen. There is a popular legend that while on campaign, the saint cut his cloak in half to share with a cold beggar. That night, he dreamed of Jesus and his cloak was restored. Baptized at 18, St. Martin of Tours later left the army, saying he was a soldier of Christ.

He became a disciple of Hilary of Poitiers, opposed Arianism, and founded the first French monastery near Poitiers in 361. Reluctantly made Bishop of Tours in 371, he founded Marmoutier monastery and defended Church authority, opposing the emperor's execution of Priscillian's followers.

St. Martin of Tours died in Candes-Saint-Martin, Gaul, in 397. He is notably among the first saints who were not martyred. He is the patron saint of France.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus shares the parable of the 10 virgins, counseling his followers to pay attention to their relationship with God and to remain ready for the coming of the kingdom.

Outside the Wedding Feast

Every time my husband tells me he needs to take our car in for an oil change, I groan: "Didn't we just do that, like, six months ago?"

"Yeah," he replies. "And like I told you six months ago, that's roughly how often it needs to be done."

If I didn't have him, I would forget to change that oil until the engine came to a grinding halt in the middle of the interstate. It's not that I'm incapable — I remember when we're about to run out of butter, when we need to scrub out the kitchen sink so it doesn't get nasty, when it's time to schedule the kids' annual doctor visits. I just don't even think about the oil.

Why would I? My husband's on top of it.

Our brains reflexively prioritize certain tasks, delegating the rest to the care of others we trust. I do it with the oil in the car. My husband does it with the groceries.

Sometimes — too often, in fact — we do it with our spiritual lives. We let it go. We don't think about it. We trust. God's got us. We'll focus on that tomorrow.

It's beautiful to have a relationship with God based in confidence, not in anxiety. But do we sometimes take this further than is healthy? In trusting that God loves us unconditionally, do we slip into the habit of de-prioritizing him? Do we linger too long outside the wedding feast, trimming our neglected lamps, forgetting that once the door closes, it also locks?

Sharing the Gospel

You do not know the day or hour when God will come for you. Be prepared with the flashlight of your soul. Love God with your whole mind, heart, and soul. Love your neighbor as yourself. When you follow these two commandments, it lights up your soul. When you forget to obey them, your light grows dim. Put a flashlight and extra batteries by your bed to show God that you are ready for him.

Prayer

Lord, thank you for loving me and forgiving me.

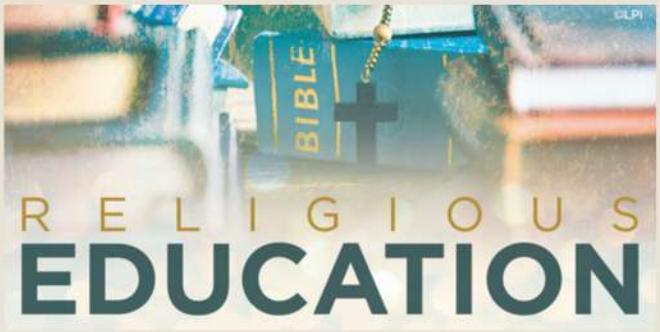

Mission for the Week

I will show the way to God by sharing favorite Bible stories with others.
